

Obituary

Born: Monday, October 24, 1938

Died: Monday, September 30, 2019

James P. McKeag, 80, of Jersey Shore, passed away Monday, Sept. 30, 2019, at his home.

Jim was born Oct. 24, 1938, in Williamsport, the son of James H. McKeag and the former Loella Gouldy. He is survived by his loving wife, Melissa, and two sons, James K. McKeag, and Jeffrey W. McKeag, both of Jersey Shore; plus grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Jim was preceded in death by a daughter, Kelly McKeag.

Jim was a graduate of the Williamsport High School, honorably served his country in the U.S. Marine Corps and a Jersey Shore business owner.

Jim was a great friend to many and was a kind and generous man.

Private graveside services at the Resurrection Cemetery will be held at a later date with full military honors conducted by the Jersey Shore Honor Guard.

Family will provide flowers and suggest memorial contributions be made in his name to the Oriole United Methodist Church, 39 Main Road, Jersey Shore, PA 17740, or to the Saint James Lutheran Church, 3242 Middle Road, Jersey Shore, PA 17740.
